The "blessed policeman" was Officer Thomas Gallagher, of the Fifth Precinct, who locked Morgan up with great promptitude.

In court to-day the man acted as if he was demented, and told Justice Connolly that he had not been at the house since, which was not remarkable, as he was taken directly from the house to the police station.

After Morgan had been taken to the pen he acted in a violent manner, and announced that he was a star acrobat. He climbed up the iron bars in front of the pen and hung by his feet.

A small boy who was in the pen became frightened at Morgan's actions and wept until he almost had hysterics.

One of the court officers told Justice Connolly about Morgan, and the magistrate wrote a letter to Warden Doyle directing that the man be examined as to his sanity.

SAY CASEY IS INCOMPETENT.

Charges to Be Made Against L. City's Fire Department Chief.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., July 36 .-Charges of incompetency are to be preferred against Chief James Casey, of the Long Island City Fire Department, at the next meeting of the Fire Commissioners.

It is alleged that Casey, on the occasion of the big fire, which recently destroyed $1,000,000 worth of property, at first refused to call to his aid the Brook-lyn Fire Department, and that when a citizen telephoned to Brooklyn for help, Cabey severely upbraided him for what he called interfering with his business.

It is conceded that, had not the Brook-lyn Fire Department rendered assistance, the fire would have burnt over a much larger portion of the lower section of the city.

Casey attributes the big fire and the great destruction of property to the scarcity of water, for which he says the city authorities were responsible.

Rev. Father McGuire, pastor of St. Mary's R C. Church, which was burned, is outspoken in denouncing the local Fire Department, and Joseph Baker, a member of the Fire Department, has tendered his resignation, as he says he is disgusted with the incompetent way in which the Department is managed.

Seeking the Origin of Hightstown's Diphtheria Epidemic.

HIGHTSTOWN, N. J., July 26 .- A State Dairy Inspector came here to-day by order of the State Board of Health to investigate the premises and examine the milk in the dairy of Albert Cham berlain, a milkman.

Chamberlain became ill of diphtheria some days ago, and it is thought that the many persons who have been stricken down since last Friday contracted the disease by drinking milk from Chamberlain's dairy. Several persons are now seriously ill including the young daughter of Milkman Chamberlain.

The local and State authorities are doing everything possible to prevent the disease from six-ading and to ascertain its origin.

One death from diphtheria was reported to-day, the victim being a sixyear-old boy named Hartman.

The houses where the disease exists are under strict quarantine.

At noon the health authorities said that the epidemic had reached its height and that the situation looked more favorable.

STRUCK FOR THEIR FOREMAN. He Refused to Discharge Men and Was Simself Discharged,

PATERSON, N. J. July 26 .- Over 100 employees of the Cooke Locomotive Works employed in the boiler shop wen on strike to-day. They were requested to carry a big iron block weighing two tons from a distant part of the works claimed it would take them half a day pensation for it.

When the foreman was ordered to discharge the men for disobeying orders he refused to do this and was himself discharged.

The men, who all sympathized with their foreman, quit work together. The managers of the works say that the strikers will not be taken back. Business in the boiler-shops is slow just at
